World Book Day 2018

Dear Parents & Carers,

To celebrate World Book Day, we will be holding a special event in school on Friday, 2nd March. Due to the popularity of author David Walliams with our pupils, we would like to celebrate one of his most recent books 'The Midnight Gang', by asking children to come to school dressed like the characters in the book - pyjamas, dressing gowns, onesies, slippers etc are all they will need! Your child could also bring in a copy of 'The Midnight Gang' if they have one, or their favourite other book to read...

During the day, we will celebrate books and reading with a special assembly and a variety of fun activities. We will also be ringing the school bell at various times as a signal for everyone to stop what they are doing and read! Look out for pictures on our twitter feed throughout the day!

To promote the event and as a bonus for children, they will all receive a FREE £1 'World Book Day' book token. This can be used at participating book shops and supermarkets (as discount against a full priced book), or be exchanged for a specially-produced £1 mini-novel!

As it still feels very much like winter, please can we ask that children have appropriate outdoor footwear and a coat for walking to and from school – slippers and dressing gowns can be brought in a carrier bag and changed into inside school, where it will be nice and warm!

Our thanks in advance of your support and for helping us to promote a love of reading with children. We look forward to a great celebration!

Yours sincerely,

Mr P. Rust
